ABOUT THE LIBRARY

Welcome to the Abu Dhabi University (ADU) Library. The ADU Library is the primary information source for students, faculty, staff, and others who visit the University. By combining the latest information technology with excellent public service, the Library staff have built an environment that provides rich information, facilitates access to it, and functions as a hub for campus and community scholarly activities.

ADU Library Website

FIND YOUR: RESOURCES

The Library discovery platform enables users to find and access all our electronic and printed material, including books, e-journals, articles, and databases.

Books and eBooks

Printed and electronic books are available on discovery services.

E-journals

The E-Journal Finder provides complete access to the Library's electronic journals.

Articles and Databases

The ADU Library owns subscriptions to more than 100 databases in a variety of subject areas, as well as widely recognized multidisciplinary databases, including EBSCO, ProQuest, Springer, and Science Direct.

EXPLORE OTHER ELECTRONIC RESOURCES

Newspapers and Magazines

The ADU Library provides a platform, enabling users to read thousands of newspapers and magazines from around the world.

LibGuides

LibGuides are guides to resources on particular subjects or research topics, plagiarism, fair use, and copyright.

Open Access Databases

The ADU Library has added an open-access resource that can be accessed without any restrictions on and off-campus.

ADU Repository

The ADU Institutional Repository - a centralized digital platform showcases the research and scholarship of the University, providing online access to all ADU's research work.

E-Forms

E-forms enable access to online versions of all Library forms, which you can use to request specific Library services.
